hydrobiologia volume 215, contents

No. 1

N. K. M. Chin, M. T. Brown & M. J. Heads: The biogeography of Lessoniaceae, with special reference to Macrocystis C. Agardh (Phaeophyta: Laminariales) 1

C. K. Tan & M. R. Johns: Fatty acid production by heterotrophic Chlorella saccharophila 13

K. E. Havens: Summer zooplankton dynamics in the limnetic and littoral zones of a humic acid lake 21

D. A. Wright & C. D. Zamuda: Copper contamination in the Patuxent River, Maryland 31

A. G. Lewis & H. Heckl: A moorable, automated plankton sampler 43

N. Lair: Grazing and assimilation rates of natural populations of planktonic cladocerans in a eutrophic lake 51

M. J. Armitage & J. O. Young: The feeding biology of the triclad Phagocata vitta (Dugès): a laboratory study 63

J. E. Dougherty & M. D. Morgan: Benthic community response (primarily Chironomidae) to nutrient enrichment and alkalinization in shallow, soft water humic lakes 73

No. 2

D. Soto & S. H. Hurlbert: Short-term experiments on calanoid-cyclopoid-phytoplankton interactions 83

L. Vörös & J. Padisák: Phytoplankton biomass and chlorophyll-a in some shallow lakes in central Europe 111

T. Penczak & C. Lasso: Problems of estimating population parameters and production of fish in a tropical rain forest stream, North Venezuela 121

D. Kuczynski: Rotifers from Reconquista River, Argentina: the genus Brachionus, with descriptions of new species 135

I. Walker, P. A. Henderson & P. Sterry: On the patterns of biomass transfer in the benthic fauna of an Amazonian black-water river, as evidenced by ^{32}P label experiment 153

C. M. Garcia & F. X. Niell: Burrowing beetles of the genus Bledius (Staphylinidae) as agents of bioturbation in the emergent areas and shores of an athalassic inland lake (Fuente de Piedra, southern Spain) 163

No. 3

K. A. Haberyan & O. K. Mhone: Algal communities near Cape Maclear, southern Lake Malawi, Africa 175

D. R. Orvos & J. Cairns Jr.: Developing a risk assessment strategy for the Chesapeake Bay 189

R. A. Snyder: Chemoattraction of a bactivorous ciliate to bacteria surface compounds 205

R. Sommaruga: Sediment oxygen demand in man-made Lake Ton-Ton (Uruguay) 215

M. Eymann: Flow patterns around cocoons and pupae of black flies of the genus Simulium (Diptera: Simuliidae) 223

W. F. James, J. W. Barko & W. D. Taylor: Effects of alum treatment on phosphorus dynamics in a north-temperate reservoir 231

J. P. Rockwood & R. A. Coler: The effect of aluminum in soft water at low pH on water balance and hemolymph ionic and acid-base regulation in the dragonfly Libellula julia Uhler 243

R. Chassé & R. Côté: Aspects of winter primary production in the upstream section of Saguenay Fjord 251
